AT the Court at St. James's, the Nineteenth Day of January, 1743.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to deliver the Cuſtody of the Seals of the Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter, to the Right Honourable Richard Lord Edgcumbe, the Oath of Chancellor of the ſaid Dutchy was this Day, by his Majeſty's Command, adminiſtred to his Lordſhip.

This Day the Right Honourable Sir John Ruſhout, Baronet, was, by his Majeſty's Command, ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Petersbourg, Dec. 20. Sunday laſt being the Empreſs's Birth-Day, her Imperial Majeſty went in State to the Cathedral Church; after Divine Service there was a very numerous Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment her Majeſty on the Occaſion. The Empreſs dined in Publick on a Throne, and the Nobility, Ladies of the Court, the Senate, Synod, Generals of the Army, and Officers of the Guards, had the Honour to dine in the ſame Room. The Vice-Chancellor, Count Beſtucheff, gave an elegant Entertainment to all the Foreign Miniſters. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court, and a grand Illumination upon the Ice, on the River over againſt the Palace, repreſenting a Garden with Trees, Parterres, &c. There were alſo Illuminations, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout the City. The ſame Day the Empreſs was pleaſed to appoint the Grand Marſhal, Count Beſtucheff, to be her Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Berlin.

Petersbourg, Dec. 27, M. de la Chetardie, the French Ambaſſadour, continues to frequent the Court as a private Gentleman, and cannot take his publick Character, nor enter upon any Buſineſs with the Miniſters of this Court, till the Point of giving the Title of Empreſs to the Czarina is ſettled. We hear that M. Holſten, the new Daniſh Miniſter, has paſſed thro' Berlin in his Way to this Court, and he is expected here in a few Days.

Berlin, Jan. 18. His Pruſſian Majeſty has put off his Journey to Potzdam, and 'tis ſaid he will ſtay here for four or five Weeks longer.

Liege, Jan. 23, N. S. This Day his Highneſs Duke Theodore of Bavaria, Biſhop of Ratisbon, was elected Biſhop and Prince of Liege.

Hambourg, Jan. 24, N. S. It is written from Poland, that the Peaſants of the Staroſty of Kryczew in Lithuania, bordering upon the Territories of Ruſſia, and belonging to the Count Sapieha, being no longer able to bear the Oppreſſion, and different Impoſitions of the Jews, who farm the Revenues of that Diſtricht, had riſen in a Body of 3000 Men, and making choice of one Woyczylo for their Chief, had maſſacred all the Jews they could lay their Hands on in two ſeveral Towns, threatning to treat in the ſame Manner as many as they ſhould find in the adjacent Parts; but that proper Meaſures had been taken for diſperſing the ſaid Rioters, and ſending them to their reſpective Villages. By our laſt Letters from Sweden we hear, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has granted a Subſidy of 400000 Rubles to Sweden, and it is ſaid that a mutual Agreement to diſarm immediately has been concluded between the Courts of Stockholm and Copenhagen.

Hague, Jan. 28, N. S. Their High Mightineſſes have prolonged the Placard, which regulates the Quarantine of all Ships coming from Meſſina, Calabria, and other Places ſuſpected of Infection, for the Space of ſeven Months, namely, till Auguſt next. His Excellency the Lord Tyrawley ſet out laſt Sunday Morning for Amſterdam, on his Way to Petersburg. The ſame Day we had a ſuffocating Fog here, which was ſo exceſſively thick, that People were confined to their Houſes for a great Part of the Day, the Town being as it were buried in a Cloud, and every Thing inviſible. Thoſe who had ventured to Church in the Morning, before it came to that Height, could not find the Way home again, but were obliged to ſtay in Church till it diſſipated. As there are but few Canals here, we had none of the Accidents which are but too common on the like Occaſions in the other Cities, by Peoples running into the Water; and hitherto we don't hear of its having extended farther than this Place.
